

COMAC MEDICAL

EXPERTS IN CLINICAL RESEARCH

About Us

Comac Medical is a leading full-service Contract Research Organization (CRO), operating across 24 countries and managing more than 1,500 clinical studies over the past 27 years.

The company provides high-quality, flexible solutions tailored to the needs of the Biotech and Pharmaceutical industries.

Key advantages that Comac Medical offers over competitors include:

- > Full-service offering with all core capabilities maintained in-house
- > Proprietary Clinical Pharmacology Unit for Early Phase studies
- > Dedicated Early Phase Unit located in Sofia, Bulgaria
- > Specialized in-house central and bioanalytical laboratory

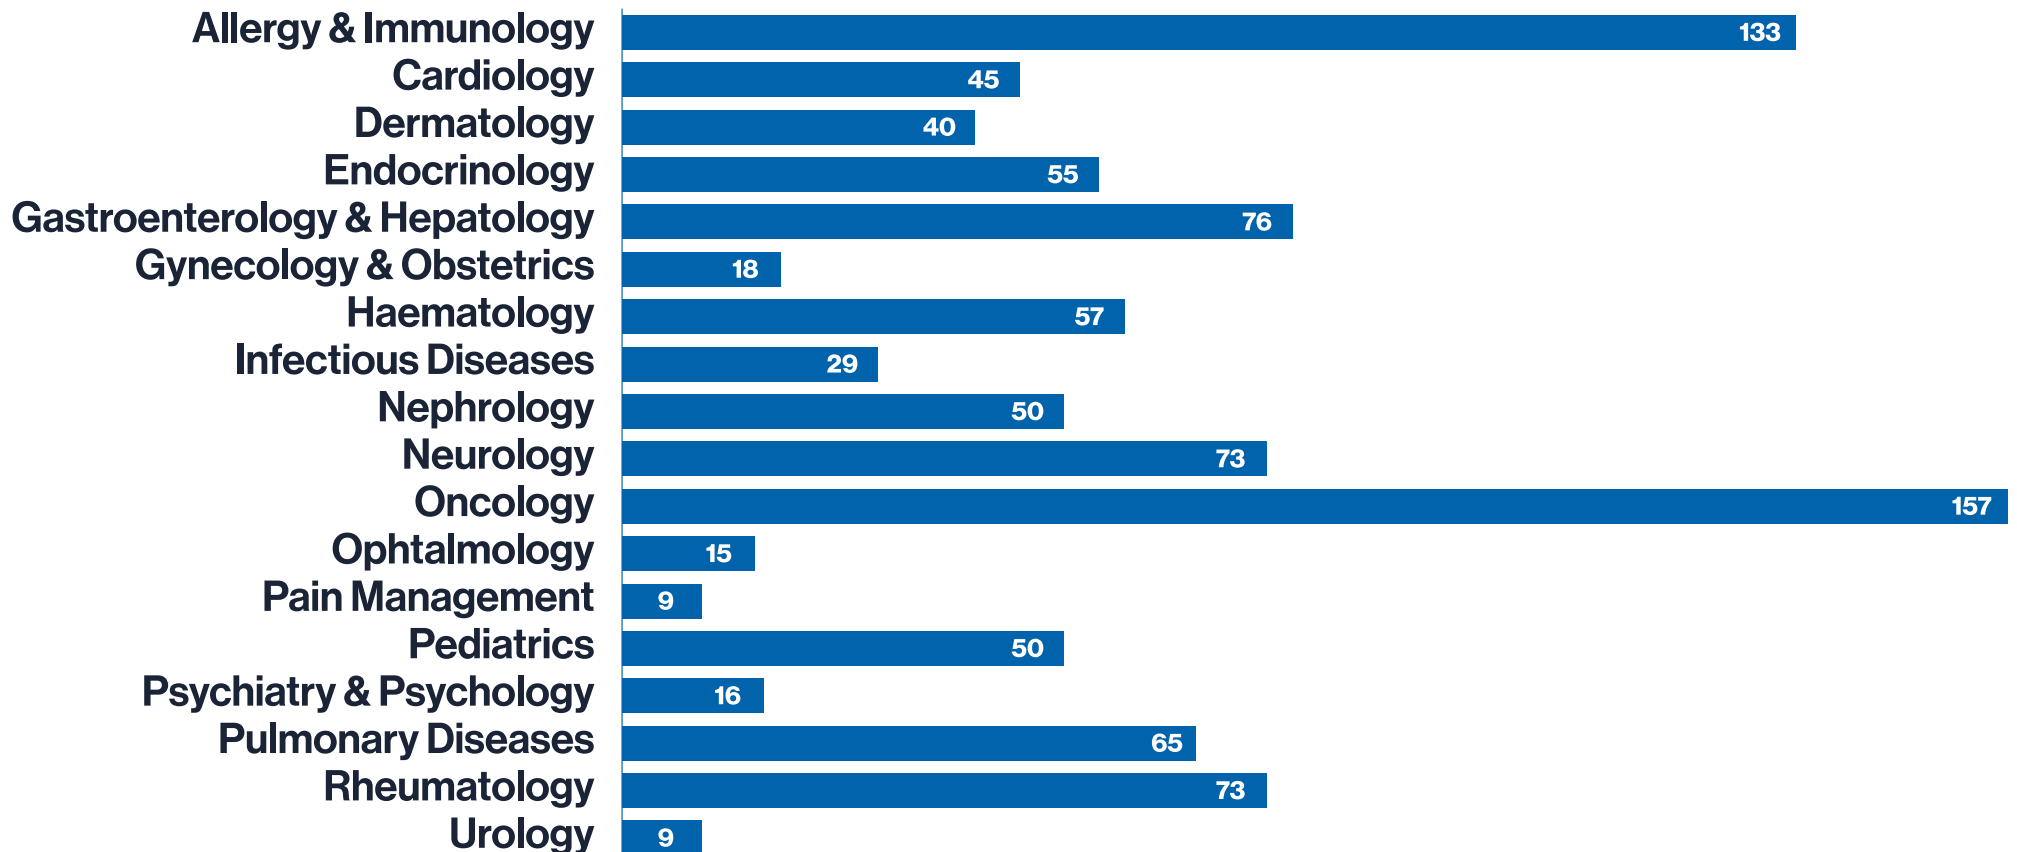

Our Full-Service Solution

Comac Medical offers Full-Service solutions for Early Phase Trials (I-IIa and BA/BE), Interventional Trials (II-III and IIIb-IV), Non-Interventional Studies, and Studies for Medical Devices and Nutraceutical products.

Our Experience

Early Phase Clinical Development

Comac Medical Early Phase Unit counts more than 18 years of experience and over 200 completed clinical trials. The Clinical Research Unit is strategically positioned in Sofia, Bulgaria and offers excellent research capabilities and provides top-tier amenities for volunteers.

Capacity of 42 hospital beds

Network of referral specialists

24-hours dedicated medical team

Specialized in-house pharmacy and central Laboratory

Large patients/healthy volunteers access

Accelerated timelines

Highly qualified & experienced clinical teams

Dedicated clinical pharmacology scientific group

Strategic Consulting

across all phases of clinical development

Dedicated Phase I Unit

in Sofia, Bulgaria, with integrated laboratory

Full-Service CRO

seamless execution
across Europe